Subject: Status of Florida's Assumption effort and BE for ESA consultation

Note for John G to send to Dave Note: John may want to delete the last bullet, but it is interesting and Dave may be interested.

Dave,

I wanted to send you a quick update on FL's efforts and timing to assume the CWA 404(g) program. FDEP and EPA staff have been working hard to finalize portions of FDEP's request package as well as undertake informal consultation under Section 7 of ESA on the program approval. Based upon the ongoing conversations and changing timelines in FL, we are not sending you anything for your approval or input at this time.

The following is the status of these efforts as well as Florida's timing as we currently understand it.
